

PROCEEDINGS OF THE COURT

Meeting of Creditors of the Hall Tie and Lumber Company.

VERDICT FOR A CITIZEN

Woman Whose Throat Was Cut by Husband Recovered Sufficiently to Appear Against Him.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
PETERSBURG, Va., October 6.—The creditors of the Hall Tie and Lumber Company, which was recently declared bankrupt, held a meeting to-day at the offices of Mr. George S. Bernard, referee in bankruptcy.

Mr. Bartlett Roper, Jr., who has for some time been receiver of the Hall Tie and Lumber Company, was to-day made trustee by the creditors.

The company has filed a schedule of debts and assets showing the amount of indebtedness to be $117,915.33; assets, $48,782.23.

In the suit of M. Levy, the furniture dealer, against the city of Petersburg for five hundred dollars' damages alleged to have been caused by an overflow of water from Syamore Street into the plaintiff's store, the jury in the Hustings Court yesterday evening awarded Mr. Levy $19.

Messrs. George S. Bernard and Bernard Mann were attorneys for the plaintiff and Mr. George Mason, city attorney, represented the city.

GAMBLING CASES.

The cases of W. P. Hudgins and George Valden, white men, and Aigie Knox, colored, all of whom were fined in the Mayor's Court some time ago, on the charge of keeping gambling houses, came before Judge Mullen this morning on appeal. Hudgins was dismissed and the case of Aigie Knox was continued until October 15th. In the Valden case, Mr. George Mason, city attorney, referred to the present law, which requires a recognition not only for appearance in the higher court, but also for the judgment of the lower court, which latter provision had not been complied with in this instance, for which reason Mr. Mason maintained that the case was not really on appeal.

Mr. John Watson, counsel for Valden, stated that his client had furnished a $100 bond for his appearance, which was all required by the lower court.

Judge Mullen took the matter under consideration.

Calvin Terrell and Pat O'Brien, the two while men arrested in Richmond several days ago on a charge of breaking open and robbing a freight car on the State of Air line in this city, were arraigned in the Mayor's Court this morning.

The accused parties waived examination and were sent on to the Hustings Court for trial on a charge of felony.

Detective Mullins, of Richmond, was among the witnesses.

ATTEMPTED WIFE MURDER.

John Warrington, of this city, will have a preliminary hearing in the Mayor's Court to-morrow morning on the charge of attempting to murder his wife, who was severely injured in a violent condition at the home for the Sick, resulting from wounds in the neck inflicted by a razor in the hands of her husband.

The affair occurred about six weeks ago on Washington Street, not very far from the hospital, and so desperate was the woman's condition at the time that her ante-mortem statement was taken before a magistrate. She has now almost entirely recovered.

Sergeant H. D. Jordan, of Bedford City, passed through Petersburg to-day with six convicts, whom he was taking to Bedford county to work on the county roads.

The Board of Directors of the Appomattox Planning Mill, a Petersburg company that has recently been incorporated, held a meeting here yesterday, and elected J. W. Jammy, of Petersburg, president, and E. M. Field, of Petersburg, secretary and general manager.

The company's mill has a capacity of about fifty thousand feet per day, and it is understood that special attention will be paid to dressing lumber for shipment to the North.

INTERESTING FACTS.

For Nearly Every Man, Woman or Child. A short time ago we published an article in respect to our readers' interest in the discovery for the cure of Dyspepsia called Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, and the claims then made regarding the wonderful curative properties of the remedy have been abundantly sustained by the facts. People who were cautioned about trying new remedies advertised in the newspapers and were finally induced to give Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets a trial were surprised and delighted at the results. In many cases the cure was effected, costing but 50 cents at any drug store, made a complete cure, and in every instance the most beneficial results were reported. From a hundred or more received, we have had a great deal of evidence, but a few of the latest, but assure our readers, we received so many commendatory letters that we shall publish each week a fresh list of genuine, unsolicited testimonials, and never publish the same one twice.

From Mrs. M. K. West, Preston, Minn.: "I have received surprisingly good effects from using Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. I gave one-half of my last box to a friend, who also suffered from indigestion, and she had the same good results."

From Mrs. Agnes K. Ralston, Cadillac, Mich.: "I have been taking Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, and I am very much better, and feel very grateful for the great benefit I have received. I have been a sufferer from indigestion for many years, and Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are a certain cure for all forms of indigestion. They are not claimed to be a cure-all, but are prepared for stomach troubles only, and physicians and druggists everywhere recommend them to all persons suffering from Nervous Dyspepsia, sour or acid stomach, heartburn, bloating or wind on stomach and similar disorders."

CANNOT REACH THEM.

The Government Cannot Prosecute Alleged Lottery.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

NEWPORT NEWS, Va., Oct. 6.—It is now reported that the Federal secret service have dropped the investigation of the alleged "Panama National Lottery Company." It seems that as the promoters of the scheme have not been using the United States mails, the Federal authorities have no excuse for prosecuting them and any proceedings against them will have to be started by the local authorities in the cities in which they have worked. There can be no prosecution under the laws prohibiting lottery, it is said, because there is no lottery and the charge of obtaining money under fraudulent pretenses seems to be the only one under which the authorities can act. The local police are looking into the matter, but as yet no arrests have been made. The sale of "Panama National Lottery" tickets has suddenly been stopped, but the promoters of the scheme are still in the city and seem to be resting easy with the idea that none of their victims will take it upon themselves to make trouble.

Since the exposure of the fraud, the operations of the alleged lottery have been the subject for general discussion all over the city. During the past year hundreds of people have been buying the tickets, which were being sold by numerous agents until the newspapers published the fact that a letter had been received from the president of Panama stating positively that there was no such company in the republic as "The Panama National Lottery Company" and that the scheme being worked here was evidently a fake. The little slips found their way into the pockets of people in all walks of life and among those who made small winnings were well-known business men of the city. The swindlers were careful to place the prizes in the proper places. It is hardly probable that any of the dupes will undertake to prosecute the swindlers and it remains to be seen whether or not the police authorities will take up the matter of their own accord.

RETURNS FOR FORTUNE.

Head Stevedore at Newport News Inherits Large Fortune.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

NEWPORT NEWS, Va., Oct. 6.—J. S. Walford and family have left for London via Philadelphia. Mr. Walford recently inherited a fortune by the death of his father, Colonel Walford, a retired English officer. The income from the estate will be 1,500 pounds sterling per year. Mr. Walford ran away from home when a boy and traveled all over the world as a sailor and sailor. For several years previous to his good fortune he was head stevedore for the Old Dominion Steamship Company, at this point. He had not seen his father for thirty years. Mr. Walford's inheritance has not turned his head at all.

AUTUMN WEDDINGS

Marriage of Henry C. Swanson to Miss Ella Cousin.

CONGRESSMAN'S BROTHER

The Ceremony Performed in the Elegantly Decorated Parlors of the Bride's Home.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CHATHAM, Va., October 6.—A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mrs. William Cousins at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon, when her daughter, Miss Ella, became the bride of Mr. Henry C. Swanson. The home was elaborately decorated in evergreens and cut flowers. The bride, who is a charming young woman and much beloved, was attended by her sister and maid of honor, Miss Fannie Cousins. The groom was attended by his brother, Mr. W. G. Swanson, of Danville, as best man. Rev. M. S. Williams, pastor of the bride, performed the ceremony. A reception followed the ceremony, immediately after which Mr. and Mrs. Swanson left for the world's fair. On their return they will reside in Danville.

The groom, who is a younger brother of Congressman Claude A. Swanson, is a partner of the warehouse firm of Keeling & Swanson, of Danville.

BEAUTIFUL WEDDING.

J. Calvin Abbott, of Manchester, and Miss Mabel Winn.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

MEHERRIN, Va., Oct. 6.—A beautiful marriage was celebrated at the home of Mr. W. C. Whitman this morning at 10 o'clock. The contracting parties were Miss Mabel, the youngest daughter of Mr. Winn, and Mr. J. Calvin Abbott, of Manchester, Va.

The spacious parlor was beautifully decorated. The bride entered with her father and the groom with his best man, Mr. John Kenney, of Danville. Rev. Mr. Woodward, of Manchester, officiated.

Miss Fanny Winn, a sister of the bride, presided at the organ and Miss Clara Dickerson, of Manchester, was maid of honor. Little Misses Marion Passmore, of Keyville, and Florence Gilla, of Norfolk, led the party, bearing large bouquets of flowers. Miss Garland Reams followed closely, bearing a small silver tray, containing the ring.

The entire party was attired in white silk with hat and gloves in white. The bride carried a large bouquet of white roses.

Immediately after the ceremony they were driven to Keyville, where they took the mid-day train for an extended northern trip. The bride is one of the most popular young ladies in this section, while the groom is a very prosperous business man of Manchester, Va., where they will reside.

Batte-Jarratt.

NORFOLK PRESBYTERY.

Interesting Overtures Debated. A Doctrinal Question.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

GLOUCESTER, C. H., Va., October 6.—The Norfolk Presbytery held its second day's session in the church at Gloucester Courthouse to-day. Among those present were Rev. W. H. Groves, A. R. Hopkins, Jr., W. M. Hunter, E. B. McClure, A. R. Shaw, J. E. Thacker, A. S. Kibbale, Joseph Rennie, ruling elder; Thomas Cooke, ruling elder; R. L. Walker, W. A. Flecker, R. D. George B. Crow, J. E. Booker, superintendent of the Synodical Evangelization, arrived to-day and addressed the congregation to-night on Home Missions.

An overture was before the Presbytery asking whether a man is disqualified from membership in the Presbyterian Church by the denial of the doctrine of future punishment or belief in annihilation of the wicked.

Two reports—a majority and a minority—were presented. An interesting discussion was held, articulated in by Rev. J. E. Thacker, W. H. Groves, A. R. Shaw and E. B. McClure. Another matter, however, having precedence, the discussion had to come to an end to be continued later.

An overture from the Hampton Church asked the Presbytery to rescind a former action on its relation to the home mission work of the Synod of Virginia, and to take in with synodical work. The debate was carried on by Mrs. McClure, Rennie, Summell and Rev. A. C. Hopkins, Jr., A. R. Shaw, W. M. Hunter and Ruling Elder W. A. Flecker.

After some slight change, the overture was answered in the affirmative.

INCENDIARY FIRES.

Barn Burned and Knights of Honor Hall Set on Fire.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

ELLERSON, Va., October 6.—A barn, belonging to Mrs. T. J. West, of Richmond, was burned last night about 10 o'clock. Mr. Leroy Merson, who lived in the place, lost his whole crop of feed and about fifty bushels of oats. There was no insurance on the contents of the barn, and probably none on the building.

The origin of the fire is unknown, but as no fire or light had been seen in the building, it was probably incendiary. The Knights of Honor Hall at Shady Grove Church, which now belongs to that church, was set on fire some time ago, but the fire was extinguished before any serious damage was done.

Mr. C. C. Smith had a fine setter dog to go mad a few weeks ago and since that time has lost a number of hogs that were probably bitten by the dog. The hogs showed signs of hydrophobia.

The ladies of Shady Grove Church, gave an entertainment last night, which consisted of tableaux and charades in the hall near the church. Quite a large number of people attended, and a large sum was realized for the benefit of the church.

HABEAS CORPUS.

Child Held for Collateral Produced Before Court.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

WINCHESTER, Va., October 6.—Further developments to-day in the case of John W. Brown holding a sixteen-months writ of habeas corpus for the production of his child, resulted in Rufus Marlin, father of the child, obtaining a writ of habeas corpus compelling Brown to produce the child before Circuit Judge T. W. Harrison, who will consider the case.

Brown now alleges that the parents of the child left for Pittsburgh nine months ago and promised him $150 a week to take care of the infant; that they never paid him any money, and that the child was in a sickly condition when he took charge of him.

The case has attracted great interest and sensational developments are expected at the trial this week.

FIVE MEN HURT.

Forty Foot Staging at the Norfolk Navy Yard Collapses.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

NORFOLK, Va., October 6.—In the collapse of a forty-foot staging at the Norfolk navy yard to-day, five men were badly injured, one of whom may die. The scaffolding was being used in the construction of a house and large piece of machinery which was being hoisted to it, caused it to collapse. Four of the injured men are negroes, and Burke Coates, of Pittsburgh, is most seriously hurt, having both arms broken and internal injuries.

TROOPS INSPECTED.

Colonel J. Lane Stern Inspected Companies A, B and E of the Seventy-first Regiment, and Battery B, Norfolk Light Artillery, in the Armory here to-day.

The Norfolk troops made a fine showing, especially the Blues, who had practically every man in line.

C. M. Barnett and George Twohy, who headed the syndicate which bought the stranded sailing ship Henry B. Hyde, with the intention of floating her, are being postponed all 10 o'clock Saturday, the case having been previously set for hearing before Justice Peed at 10 o'clock this morning.

The concentration of opinion seems to be that the old artery is going to fare pretty badly at the hands of the law, there are a few who believe that his mind is unbalanced. Most people think that the $200 insurance on his child's life was the prime motive to the alleged incendiarism and murder.

Death in a tub of water is the sad and distressing fate that met the fifteen-month-old child of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Savage yesterday evening when the infant was playing around in the yard of their residence in Plimmer's Point.

Efforts were made to resuscitate the child as soon as it was discovered by its mother, but without avail. Mr. Savage is the chief billing clerk of the Southern Railway office in Plimmer's Point.

The oyster inspectors of Norfolk and Norfolk county are still at work inspecting the packing houses, and yesterday
